How To Train Your Dragon

On the rugged isle of Berk, where Vikings and dragons have been bitter enemies for generations, Hiccup stands apart. The inventive yet overlooked son of Chief Stoick the Vast Hiccup defies centuries of tradition when he befriends Toothless, a feared Night Fury dragon. Their unlikely bond reveals the true nature of dragons, challenging the very foundations of Viking society.

- The Crimson Throne—Sara Raasch
- Dating After The End Of The World—Jeneva Rose. A viral outbreak turns the people it infects into zombielike creatures. No one saw this coming, except Casey's doomsday-prepping father. With no place left to run and danger lurking around every corner, Casey returns home and is surprised to find that her dad has hunkered down with a group of survivors. While struggling to live on the compound, face outside threats, Casey learns that although the world has ended, hers is just beginning.
- Definitions—Matt Greene. Students arrive at the Center nameless after a strange illness destroys their memories. Each day, they attend classes to help them relearn the right ways to speak and live; they practice the roles they'll assume once they return to society. But as shards of memories begin to threaten the strict curriculum, students question the definitions given to them.
- Evensong—Stewart O'Nan. The Humpty Dumpty Club is distraught when their powerhouse leader takes a bad fall down her stairs. Now between navigating their own relationships and aging bodies and attending choir practice, these invisible yet indomitable women help where they can. They bake cookies, care for pets, pick up prescriptions, sit vigil by the sick and most of all, show up for the people they've pledged to help.
- The Everlasting—Alix Harrow. Una Everlasting was Dominion's greatest hero: the orphaned girl who became a knight and died for queen and country. Her legend lives on but her life was forgotten. Centuries later, Owen, failed soldier & struggling scholar falls in love with the tale of Una. Her story takes him to war, to the archives and then into the past itself.

- Forget-Me-Not Library—Heather Webber Juliet is lucky to be alive after a freak accident. Recovering, she feels that something is missing from her life and takes a road trip. When a detour leads Juliet to Forget-Me-Not, AL she discovers there is magic between the pages of where you've been and where you still need to go. And that happiness, even when lost, can always be found again
- The Haunting of Payne's Hollow—Kelley Armstrong. Sam is faced with the realities of her childhood and the secrets kept hidden in the shadows of her memories. When her aunt goes missing a couple days into her stay at Payne's Hollow, Sam begins to question everything again. Plagued by nightmares and paranoia, she hears sounds in the forest and sees shapes crawling from the lake as the waves promise something unspeakably dark lurking just below the surface.
- The Hitchhikers—Chevy Stevens. On the remote Canadian highways in 1976, Tom and Alice are on an RV road trip to repair their marriage and heal the wounds of recent tragic events, but when they join up with a seemingly friendly young couple, things take a dark turn.

New Movies

- Beast of War: During WWII, a warship on its way to the frontlines is attacked by Japanese fighter jets. The ship is blown apart, engulfed in flames and sinking fast. Most of the crew are killed instantly, but a group of survivors escape and make a raft from floating debris. Adrift and clinging to life, survivors face brutal sun exposure, dehydration, hunger and panic while an unseen threat circles below.
- Dead of Winter: During a blizzard, a grief-stricken loner gets lost among backroads. She stops for help at a remote cabin in the woods. She discovers a young woman who was kidnapped by a desperate couple intent on murder. Isolated and without cell service, this unlikely hero realizes she is the woman's only hope of survival.
- Downton Abbey: The Grand Finale: When Mary finds herself at the center of a public scandal and the family faces financial trouble, the entire household grapples with the threat of social disgrace.
- Freakier Friday: Tess's daughter Anna now has a daughter of her own and soon, a step-daughter. As they navigate the joys and challenges when two families merge, lightning just may strike twice.
- Is Anybody There?: 10-year-old Edward lives in his family-run retirement home. His mother struggles to keep the business afloat and his father copes with a mid-life crisis. Edward leads a lonely existence until he meets Clarence, a retired magician and grieving widower, who refuses to give in gracefully to old age. The two strike up an unlikely friendship which helps them both remember that magic is possible when life is lived to its fullest.
- Killing Faith: In the lawless frontier of 1849, a deadly sickness spreads—and with it, rumors of a young girl cursed by the devil. One man must choose whether to run or stand and protect the innocent.
- Looking Through Water: After a public meltdown, a successful executive joins his estranged father for a fishing competition in Belize, only to find healing, truth, and purpose in an unexpected family bond that echoes across generations.
- The Naked Gun: Only one man has the particular set of skills to lead Police Squad and save the world! Lt. Frank Drebin Jr. follows in his father's footsteps.
- The Prisoner: A British SAS officer is sent to the Philippines in WWII. As the sole survivor of his mission, he is taken captive at a POW camp and awaits the infamous Bataan Death March. He and his fellow prisoners are forced to compete in brutal death matches for the entertainment of their captors, but he proves to be a formidable opponent and defies the odds against him.
- What We Hide: After their mother suffers a fatal overdose, two sisters fear that the foster system will separate them and decide to hide the body. But their lie may be discovered and they must decide how far they are willing to go to keep their secret.
- Xeno: A young girl and a terrifying alien form a powerful bond after a chance encounter in the desert, sending them on an adventure that questions the nature of good and evil.

Oldies But Goodies

- The Burbs: Spending a relaxing week at home, Ray has trouble with his neighbors—a hefty busybody, a freaked-out ex-soldier and a spacey teenager—as they observe the strange happenings at the Kloepk's bizarre residence. When a neighborhood grouch disappears, the men are convinced the ramshackle house hides hideous clues. Armed with assault rifles and a shovel, they decide to see for themselves what is going on next door.
- Cocoon: Elderly residents of a retirement home discover pods in a swimming pool that grant them vitality and the choice between life and death as aliens try to retrieve their kin.
- Cocoon: The Return: The adventurous old-timers who left Earth for the alien utopia Antarea, return on a rescue mission. Accustomed to their new problem-free planet, they realize the joys they left behind after they are reunited with their families. Yet for all their happiness, they must once again confront the human frailties of their past.
- That Thing You Do: An American rock band becomes an overnight triumph during the glory days of rock & roll and rides the star-making machinery as long as it can, with lots of help from its manager.
- The Money Pit: Evicted from their Manhattan apartment, Walter and Anna buy what looks like the home of their dreams only to find themselves saddled with a bank-account-draining nightmare. Struggling to keep their relationship together as their rambling mansion falls to pieces around them, the two hapless homeowners watch in hilarious horror as everything—including the kitchen sink—disappears into The Money Pit.
- Turner and Hootch: A dirty dog helps a tidy detective link California beach-town foul play to a drug-money laundry.
