  2. Fenway and the Frisbee Trick: Catching a Frisbee in mid-air is harder than it looks.
- It's a Sign—Jarrett Pumphrey. One, Two, Kat, and Four want to form a club so together they figure out how to make a sign saying what their club should be called.
- Lego Ninjago: Spinjitzu Brothers: The Maze of the Sphinx
- Mina Mistry (sort of) Investigates: The Case of the Bicycle Thief—Angie Lake

New Graphic Novels

- Big Nate: Beware of Low-Flying Corn Muffins—Nate has all kinds of big plans and tricks up his sleeve: writing a book, trying to convince his dad to get him a dog for Christmas and helping his friend Chad score a new nickname at P.S. 38.
- Growing Pangs—Kathryn Ormsbee. Homeschooled Katie experiences the ups and downs of growing up—from bad haircuts and new experiences, new friends, and a new understanding of her OCD.

New Nonfiction

- Disney Princess Tea Parties: 50+ recipes inspired by Jasmine, Ariel, Rapunzel and more!—Sarah Caron
- Martin and Chris Kratt: The Wild Life: biography—Martin & Chris Kratt. Two brothers turned their love of animals into an amazing career! They created a TV show called the Wild Kratts, traveled the world and encountered incredible creatures, all while combining science education with fun.

Tweens

- Storm Blown—Nick Courage. A little rain and wind don't worry Alejo—they're just part of life at the beach. As his padrino says, as long as there are birds in the waves, it's safe. When people start evacuating, though, Alejo realizes things might be worse than he thought. And they are. A hurricane is headed straight for Puerto Rico. Emily's brother, Elliot, has been really sick. He can't go outside their New Orleans home, so Emily decides to have an adventure for him. She's on a secret mission to the tiny island Elliot loves. She's not expecting to meet up with an injured goose or a shy turtle. And nothing has prepared her for hurricane Valerie. Soon Alejo and Emily will be in Valerie's deadly path. Who will survive?

Middle School

- This Is Not A Drill—K. A. Holt. Ava is having a really bad day: her parents are getting divorced, she has had a big argument with her best friends, and the charge on her cellphone is getting low; but things are about to get a lot worse because the lockdown alarm has just gone off, and there is an intruder in the school building. Told in text messages.
- Treasure Hunters: The Ultimate Quest—James Patterson & Chris Grabenstein. When their ship, the Lost, explodes, Bick, Beck, Tommy, and Storm are stranded on a raft in the middle of the Mediterranean Sea, but the situation worsens when the treasure hunters kidnap their parents, forcing them to follow clues around the globe to uncover an ancient treasure and save their family.

Books For Teens

- The 100 series—Kass Morgan. Ever since nuclear was destroyed Earth, humanity has been living on city-like spaceships hovering above the toxic surface. 100 juvenile delinquents are sentenced to return and recolonize the hostile land. Nothing can prepare them for what they find on this strange and savage planet. It's not just a fight for survival. It's a war.

1. The 100
2. Day 21
3. Homecoming
4. Rebellion

- The Agathas—Kathleen Glasgow & Liz Lawson. Last summer, Alice's boyfriend Steve dumped her. Then she disappeared for 5 days. She's not talking, so where she went and what happened to her is biggest mystery at Castle Cove High School. Or it was, until Steve is accused of murdering his new girlfriend. Alice and her tutor Iris Adams try to clear his name by relying on the wisdom of Agatha Christie.

- Great or Nothing—Joy McCullough. A reimagining of Little Women set in the spring of 1942, when the United States is suddenly embroiled in the Second World War, this story, told from each March sister's point of view, is one of grief, love, and self-discovery.
- Lines Of Courage—Jennifer Nielsen. From the assassination that triggers World War I in 1914 to Armistice Day in 1918, the story follows the fates of five young people on both sides of the conflict—each facing their portion of the war with courage, until the end of the war brings them together.

Give your child a head start! Subscribe to TALK.

TALK: Text and Learn for Kindergarten sends fun activities for parents to do with their babies and preschoolers. Make any time learning time! Developed by librarians and based on the Every Child Ready to Read program, TALK encourages parents to read, write, sing, talk, and play with their little ones everyday. TALK activities are designed to get kids ready for school success. And it's FREE!

Click the link on SDL's website to sign up to get 8-10 text messages per month with fun activities you can do at home to help prepare your little ones, aged 5 and under, for school success. Start your child on the road to learning. Research shows that when parents and caregivers talk and listen to young children, they develop the cognitive and language skills they need to do well in school and beyond. TALK activities increase back-and-forth conversations and provide activities for little ones to learn through exploration and discovery.

Parents may also receive updates about SDL story times and other free, educational children's events. Plus, a few tips just for you. When parents are strong and healthy, it's easier to give kids what they need to grow.

Parents are their child's first teachers.
